

WHITHER CPD?

Institute of Physics (Hooke Room)
76 Portland Place, London W1B 1NT
Tuesday 10th November 2009

A seminar about CPD, differing practices and the experiences gained so far, with the opportunity to consider the implications for those wishing to develop an appropriate learning culture in their organisations.

PROGRAMME

09:30 – 10.00	Registration and coffee
10:00 – 10.15	Welcome and Introduction David Pierce, Associate Director CPD, The Centre for Recording Achievement Stephanie Richardson, Professional Development Manager, Institute of Physics
10:15 – 11.00	Two views from the 'sharp end' Examples of 'workforce development' practice. Nicki Seignot, Talent Manager Asda Hazel Langley, Learning & Development Manager, Groundwork UK
11.00 – 12.00	What's happening in CPD? What research shows about present practice. Andy Friedman, Managing Director of the Professional Associations Research Network (PARN)
12.30 – 13:30	LUNCH
13:30 – 14.30	What's the best way forward? Two views from professional bodies. Dorothy Wood, Head of Education UK, ACCA Steven Gould, Director of Regulation and Consumer Protection, RICS
14.30 – 15.00	CPD in Higher Education The Academy's view and role. Helen Thomas, Assistant Director, The Higher Education Academy
15:00 – 16:00	Discussion; what does it all mean?